Training and Assessment Information

VTI uses face to face classroom-based delivery for knowledge and practical teaching. These lessons are:

- Facilitator led
- Interactive, participative and collaborative group sessions
- Using textbooks and group work
- Using video and other supplementary teaching resources for variety
- The Internet is used as reference which students will access

You are required to attend classes for 20 hours per week for 30 study weeks (3 terms of 10 weeks each and 4 weeks of holidays).

In addition to classroom based learning, you will also need to complete minimum 5 hours of additional unsupervised study per week including general reading and research required for assessments.

You will also need to complete assessments for this course which may include but not limited to:

- Written questions
- Practical demonstration
- Presentation/Role Play
- Case Study
- Project/Assignment

At the beginning of each unit, your trainer and assessor will outline the assessment tasks and advise the task/unit submission date. In some cases, you will also be required to complete an assessment within a set time limit (particularly in the case of written question tasks).

Course Progress and Attendance

Satisfactory course progress and attendance is very important in order to meet the course requirements. The students must maintain minimum of 80 per cent attendance in each term of the scheduled timetable. You will also be provided with further information about course progress and attendance requirements on orientation day. For more information, please visit VTI's website <https://www.vocationalinstitute.com.au/>.

Student Support Services

VTI offers the following in relation to support and welfare services to students but not limited to:

- One-to-one support from the trainer/assessor
- Support with personal issues
- Access to additional learning resources
- Reasonable adjustment in assessment
- Social events
- Information about external sources of support

You may not have studied for a while, may have English as a second language or need additional assistance with literacy or numeracy. VTI will identify any additional support needs you may have at the time of application and enrolment and may prepare a Student Support Plan for you based on those needs.

All the students commencing this course are required to complete VTI's LLN test on the orientation day to assist VTI to identify student's needs for additional support during their study with VTI.

Course Delivery and Assessment Methods

This program is delivered in the classroom and practical activities will be held at fully equipped automotive workshop. VTI uses a range of techniques during face-to-face delivery including trainer presentations and demonstrations, individual tasks, case studies, research, role plays, practical demonstrations and group work. The context of the simulated workplace environment will be incorporated into delivery methodologies and students will complete tasks to appropriate workplace standards.
